

A message from the Head of School...

This week there have been various trips from school.

Year 5 have been to York Art Gallery and taken part in a workshop where they have been learning about Iron Age animal art. During the workshop, the children showed how much they know about art, but the best question was from Halen who asked 'Do you have any cubist art here?' And they do!

Tiny Steps have had a fabulous visit to Piglets and they even spotted Miss Woodward and baby Thea! The children really loved it and Harvey said 'Emma are we coming again tomorrow?'

Donations needed...

We are still in need of second-hand children's books and would be so grateful for any that you manage to clear out over half term! We also need plastic takeaway boxes (with lids), bottle gift bags, and cakes. Please bring them to the school office before 9th June. Thank you!
