

Haxby Road Primary Academy Tweets of the Week!

w/c 06.03.23

Mrs M @HaxbyRoadMusic · Mar 6
 Whip-Ma-Whop-Ma-Gate had fun following a leader and keeping a steady beat on claves to 'Viennese Musical Clock' by Kodály. @HaxbyRoad @EddonMrs

Missholder @Missholder5 · Mar 6
 This week @RacketsCubed the children were exploring different ways to test their reaction time, in a series of challenges. Well done to our sporting stars for this week! @HaxbyRoad @mr_robinson10

Mrs M @HaxbyRoadMusic · Mar 6
 Ousegate enjoyed finding out which percussion instrument has to be hit, scraped or shaken. @HaxbyRoad @EyfsRoad

@MrsEddon_ @EddonMrs · Mar 8
 Today is #InternationalWomensDay and we have learnt about 4 inspirational women in Whip-Ma-Whop-Ma-Gate! @HaxbyRoad #8MarchWomensDay #girlpower

Mrs Mac @MrsMac_ · Mar 8
 Today Gillygate @HaxbyRoad learned about International Women's Day and as part of our PSHE work on jobs and careers, we discussed stereotypes.

Mrs Starr @Mrs_Starr_ · Mar 8
 Happy #InternationalWomensDay! Jubbergate spent the afternoon exploring some iconic figures in history and celebrating the special women in their lives! @womensday @HaxbyRoad @EyfsRoad #EmbraceEquity #InternationalWomensDay2023 #IWD2023

Mrs M @HaxbyRoadMusic · Mar 8
 Micklegate had fun keeping the beat with a bouncy ball. @HaxbyRoad @MrsC_017

Mr Hind @MrHind5 · Mar 8
 In Year 6, we have been learning about protected characteristics and creating amazing posters celebrating key figures who have challenged discrimination. Here is Lois' poster that focused on her inspiration Helen Keller! @HaxbyRoad

Mr Robinson @mr_robinson10 · 15h
 These superstars were an absolute credit to the school during our football festival! They all played with such effort and desire and even in the arctic conditions played with smiles on their faces. They thoroughly enjoyed the ks1 festival! @HaxbyRoad

