Around school this week!

CAVE ART

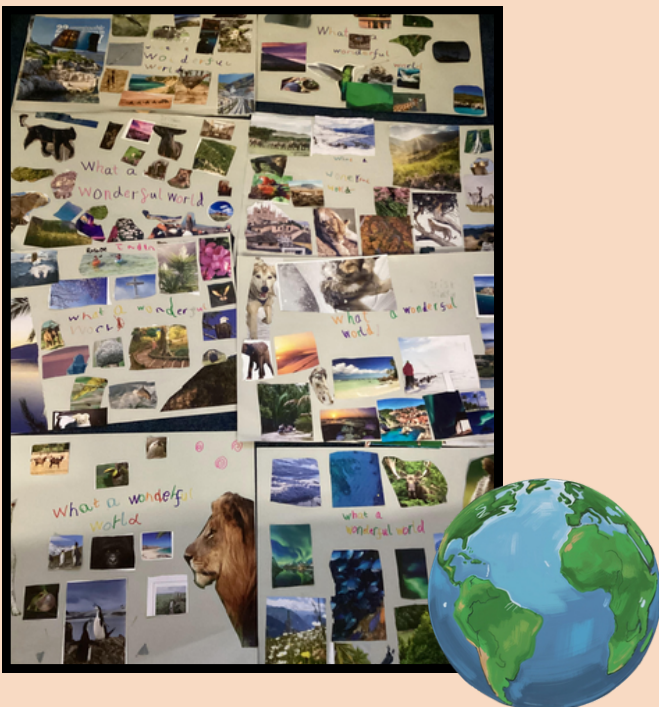

This week, as part of their Stone Age topic, Fossgate used the glorious sunshine as an opportunity to practice some cave paintings. This is something they had explored through their class book and history lessons over the last week.

OUR WONDERFUL WORLD

In Whip-Ma-Whop-Ma-Gate this week, they have been celebrating our wonderful world as they begin their new RE topic. Here are some examples of their amazing work!

Our community

The return of the Groves Spring Festival. A free festival for all families to access over the bank holiday weekend to support the local community! just go to <https://grovesassociation.org/spring-festival/>

JOBS

In Ousegate this week, for PSHE they were learning about the different jobs people do in their community and the different strengths they need to do them.

Family Flourish

Each week, reception parents are invited to take part in a session with their children. This week, they enjoyed their reading themed family flourish to share a book with their grown up and show off some of their reading skills!

Our School Instagram

On this weeks newsletter, I wanted to take the time to draw attention to our school Instagram!

As a school community, we love to share all of the amazing things that happen here at our school. With that in mind, we would like to reach as many of you as possible with our Instagram page for updates on everyday life at Haxby Road. Please join us on our journey!
