Around school this week!

THE AMAZON

Reception have been learning about the Amazon rainforest and Kapok trees! They have made their own mosaics of chameleons and then made their own representations of the Kapok Tree!

KS1 CRAFT CLUB

In this weeks KS1 Craft Club the children have started to create a Kindness Handprint Tree to showcase all of the kind things we do in KS1!

The Glassmaker's daughter

Whip-Ma-Whop-Ma-Gate started their new class text this week, The Glassmaker's Daughter and in DT they started investigating the features of structures. They worked well together to construct their own palaces.

Asthma Friendly School

Over the past 6 months, the school has been on a journey to become officially Asthma friendly! On Wednesday, Alex Oliver came in to school to present us with the award which will proudly be displayed in the school office!
